

Membership Committee News Flash

Dear Members of Fairfax Public Access

The results of the 2014 FPA Board election are as follows:

Jim Southworth: 51 votes

Steve Mullen: 37 votes

Jim and Steve have both been elected to three-year terms.

Congratulations to the candidates and thank you to all FPA members who attended the 2014 FPA Member Meeting and Election.

Congratulations

The results are in and we'll like to announce our latest TV producer contest winner. After evaluating the episodes and tallying the votes our top CHANNEL 30 TV Producer for this quarter is Sarantuya Tsedevsuren, producer of "Zara's Mongol Entertainment". We want to congratulate her and all of the crew for the excellent quality of the production and wish them the best with future episodes.

We also wish to thank our top three volunteers of the July – September quarter for the time and the skills they provide to our producers. They are a big part of the continued success of these shows and the mission of FPA.

The top three volunteers for this quarter in alphabetical order are:

- Keri Rafter
- Gail Ruf
- Peter Scheps

We'll soon have additional information regarding the next producer contest but please note that we've also began tallying volunteer credits for the October – December volunteer contest.

Thank you all for the continued support of FPA.

Future equipment updates:

- *New HD field camera equipment – model (JVC GY-HM850)
- Hitachi HD cameras for our TV studios
- New tripods, camera viewfinders, and camera heads for studios A and B
- New studio A and B teleprompter monitors
